minimum conversion rate, all while fully profiting from any potential improvement in the currency's exchange rate.

Opt for the Crédit Agricole Group's CALL or PUT purchase option.

BASIC PRINCIPLES

- A USD Call purchase (right to purchase USD) allows the guarantee of a USD purchase rate, all while being able to profit from any depreciation in the foreign currency.
- A USD Put purchase (right to sell USD) allows the guarantee of a USD selling rate, all while being able to profit from any appreciation in the foreign currency.
- The purchase of a Call (purchase option) gives the right, and not the obligation, to purchase a defined notional amount of the foreign currency at a set rate (K) and on a set date (European option), or during a given period (American option), in exchange for the payment of a premium.
- The purchase of a Put (sales option) gives the right, and not the obligation, to sell a defined notional amount of the foreign currency at a set rate (K) and on a set date (European option), or during a given period (American option), in exchange for the payment of a premium.

YOUR NEEDS

You are an importing or exporting company and you wish to benefit from an insurance policy.

You are looking for a customizable contract (notional amount, maturity, rate).

BENEFITS

- The Call guarantees a maximum purchase price for the foreign currency and allows you to benefit from its depreciation without restriction.
- The Put guarantees a maximum selling price for the foreign currency and allows you to benefit from its appreciation without restriction.
